Professional Accounting Major, BA

Student Learning Outcomes

Students will:

• identify ethical issues and apply personal values and professional codes of conduct to resolve ethical issues, including social responsibility and environmental reporting issues;

• develop awareness of diverse perspectives and cultures and their impact on the communication of accounting information in the international arena;

• generate, interpret and communicate accounting information for use in decision making.