Biology Major, BS

Student Learning Outcomes

Students will:

- expand and deepen their knowledge of biology and integrate that knowledge in their specialization;

- become informed, critically thinking scientists who can design, execute and communicate original research in the field of biology;

- become proficient in oral communication about biology in general and their research area in particular.