English, MA

Student Learning Outcomes

Students will:

• employ research methods, conduct original research, determine the value of a wide variety of sources (including computer databases and computer-mediated texts);

• write and edit major papers in English;

• engage in reflective practice in conjunction with academic writing.