Finance Major, BA

_Sstudent Learning Outcomes_

_Students will:_

• understand and be able to apply the time value of money;

• be able to conduct long-term financial analysis in real-world domestic and international applications;

• be able to integrate the cost of capital (derived from risk, capital structure and market factors) into financial analyses;

• be able to conduct short-term financial analysis including cash-flow projections,

• understand how modern securities including derivatives can be used to achieve investment and risk-management objectives.