Management, Human Resource Management Option, BA

Student Learning Outcomes

Students will:

• be able to understand and deal with the influence of the major environmental factors that affect HRM activities;

• possess the knowledge and skills needed to effectively manage the staffing function;

• possess the knowledge and skills needed to effectively manage the compensation function;

• possess the knowledge and skills needed to conduct effective training and development activities;

• possess the knowledge and skills needed to effectively manage labor relations and employee safety and health.